Fraser & Co Memberships.

Why are these important?

Estate agents in the UK are required to be members of various regulatory bodies and schemes to ensure transparency, professionalism, and protection of both landlords and tenants. Here's a brief explanation of why they need to be members of the mentioned organisations:

Safeagent – Accreditation Scheme

Peace of mind for landlords and tenants safeagent is the UK's leading, not for profit accreditation scheme for lettings and management agents operating in the Private Rented Sector. safeagents meet strict compliance criteria to provide reassurance to landlords and tenants.

TDS – Tenancy Deposit Scheme

The TDS are the longest-serving, not-for-profit government approved scheme protecting millions of tenancy deposits since 2003. As a government approved provider of alternative dispute resolution, they provide free, impartial end of tenancy dispute resolution and mid-tenancy conciliation and mediation services.

The Property Ombudsman

The Property Ombudsman Service (TPOS) is the largest scheme, established in 1990. They will offer you advice and guidance and will undertake early resolutions wherever possible.

RICS – The Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors

Our Directors David Parris & Keith Fraser are members of The Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS), a leading professional body working in the public interest to advance knowledge, uphold standards, and inspire current and future professionals. Members help to create and protect built and natural environments that are sustainable, resilient and inclusive for all.
